FALL 2010 Chamber Ensemble
Cathedral of Saint John - Amsterdam Ave at 112th St

I. MEDIEVAL MOSAIC
Martyrs, Meccas, Motets & Muses
Saturday, Nov. 6 at 8 PM Sunday, Nov. 7 at 2 PM

EARLY MUSIC NEW YORK (EM/NY) embarks on a musical pilgrimage to major European religious and cultural destinations – cathedrals, monasteries & abbeys of Paris, Compostela, Canterbury, Limoges, Monserrat, Assisi - stopping at major centers of learning where ungodly vagabond goliards commingle with pious & learned monks.

A legacy of illuminated manuscripts – Carmina Burana, Libre Vermeil, from the scriptoriae of Notre Dame & St. Martial, devotional laude devotional of lay singing societies inspired by the teachings St. Francis, along with foot stomping istanpittas (dances) – are brought to light and life in Gotham’s own glorious, gothic Cathedral.

II. CHRISTMAS QUILT
Colonial Fuguing Tunes, Jigs & Reels
Saturday, Dec. 4 at 8 PM Sunday, Dec. 5 at 2 PM

Conducted by Frederick Renz, EM/NY’s Orchestra of Original Instruments offers a sumptuous musical menu, paying homage to the celebrated masters Bach, Handel, Telemann and Vivaldi.

Setting aside his taste for championing lesser-known 17th- and 18th-century orchestral bon bons, this season, maestro Renz concentrates on definitive orchestra works by undisputed masters – a feast of solo concerti and concerti grossi, cantatas and suites (including Georg Philipp Telemann’s celebrated “Tafelmusik”).

In anticipation of spring, hear and see this splendid orchestra – live - enhanced by the ideal acoustical and visual ambience of St. James’ Church.
